In this world of millions,
The chances are few that
You will ever find two people
That when joined together,
Form a union that is not only
Beneficial to themselves,
But also to those around them.
When such a pair is found—
There is always . . .
A helping hand, A friend
An advisor, and a listener.
We were lucky to find such a pair.

With thanks, love and luck
For their future,
We dedicate the 1978 Pineneedle
To our advisors . . .

DENNIS & JOAN O'CONNOR

The Grier Family

As Grier's 125th graduating class you have held a special place in our tradition. Lifestyles, attitudes, and social roles have changed dramatically over the six generations of students attending this school, but certain basic human values have remained constant—the worth of individual effort on the one hand and respect for the greater community on the other. Hopefully your experience here has been a valid "prepping" for the tests and opportunities that lie ahead. My best wishes to each of you in your quest for fulfillment and happiness.

SENIORS

I am not afraid of tomorrow
For I have seen yesterday
And I love today.

Patrica Douglas

The pursuit of truth will set you free even if you never catch up with it.

Julia Ackerman

No goal is too high if one climbs with care and confidence.

Sonia Newton

The Person that each of us is is unique.

Ellen Johnson

Friendship marks a life
Even more deeply than love.

Deborah Shawley

So if you think your life is complete confusion
'cause you never win the game just remember that its a grand illusion
and deep inside we're all the same.

Peggy Kauffman

Take your time
Think a lot
Think of everything you've got Because you'll still be here tomorrow
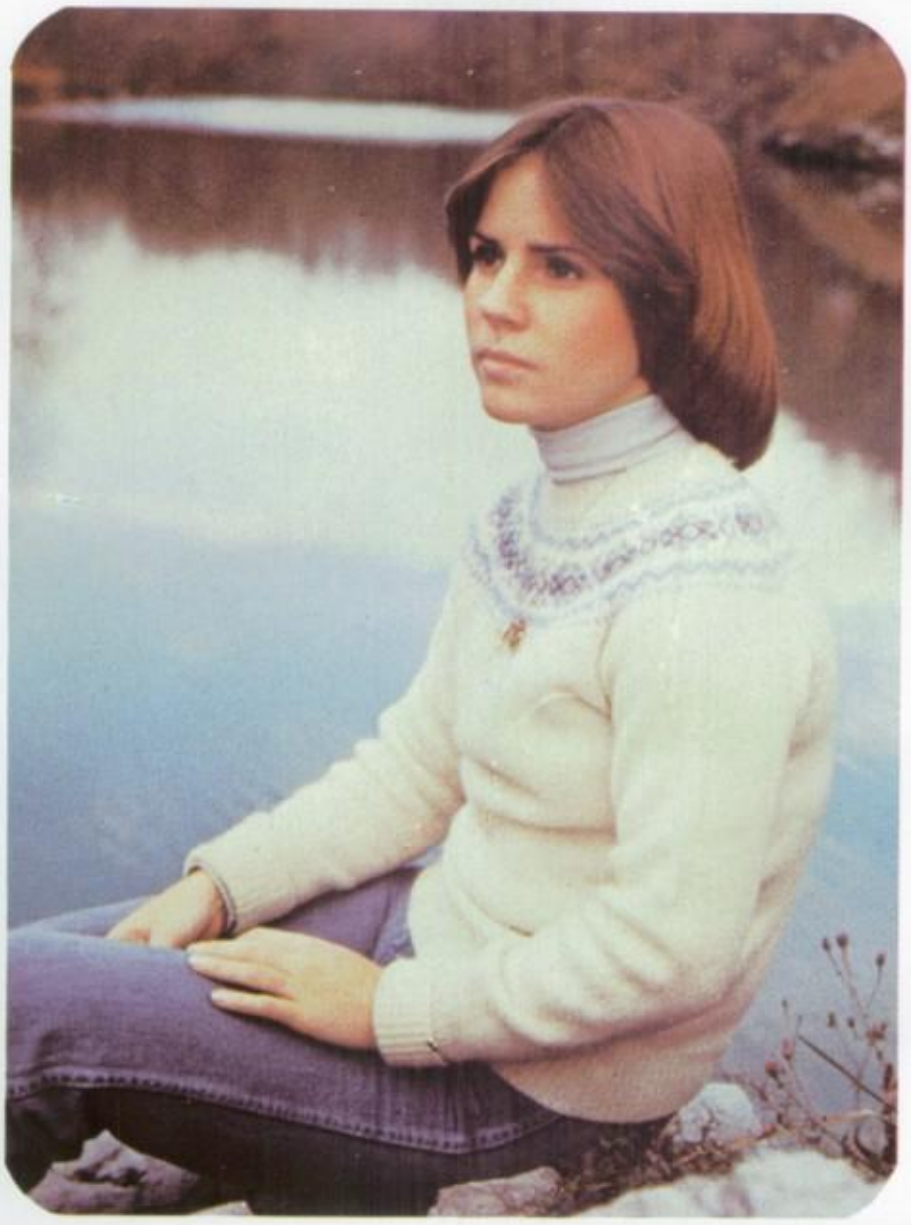
But your dreams may not.

Patricia Gilbert

Give me the wind in my hair
The sun in my face
A place to relax
And I can dream forever.

Evelyn Maksuta



Don't walk in front of me—
I may not follow
Don't walk behind me—
I may not lead
Walk beside me—
And just be my friend.

Anne McManus

For all the good times, sad times laugh times
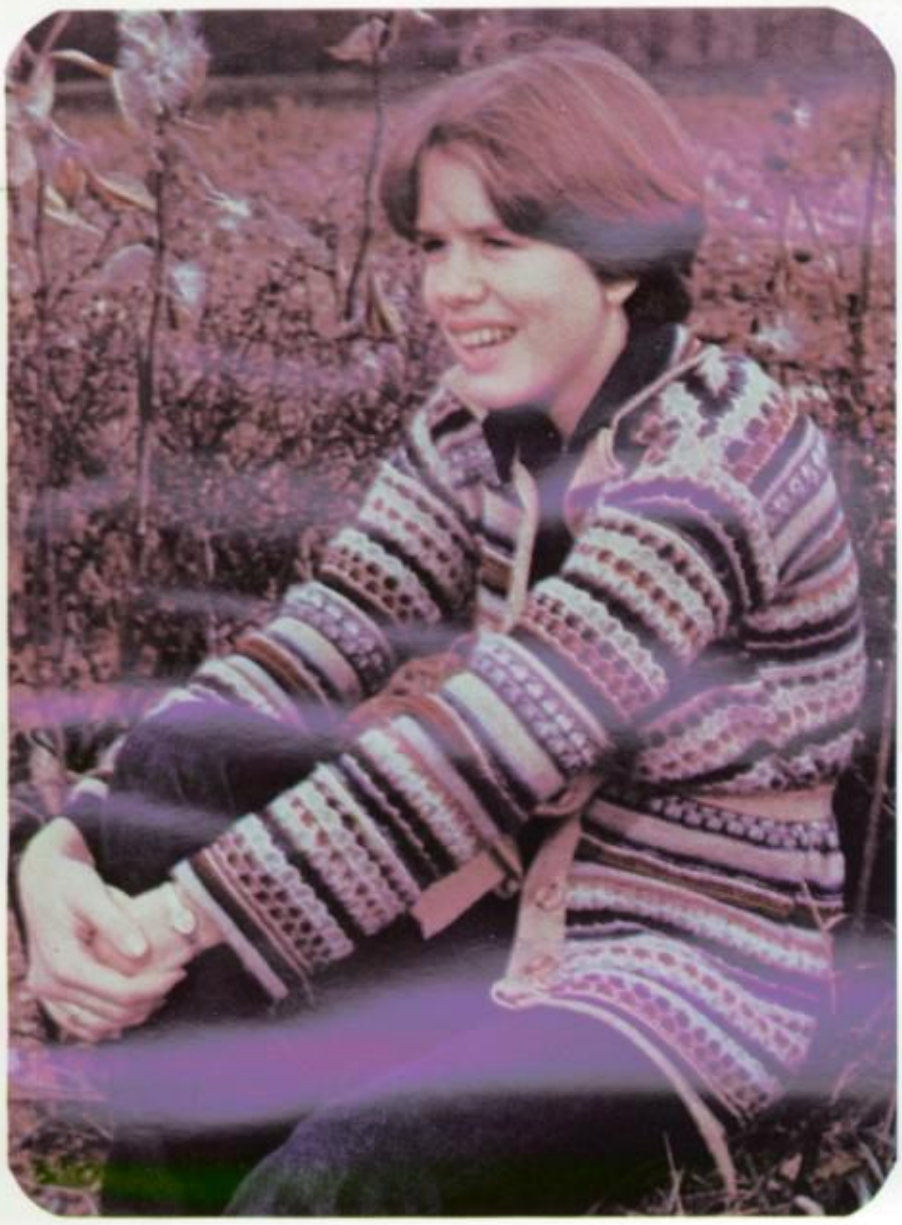
Silly sentimental times we've shared—
I celebrate you, my friend.

Jenny Johnson



From tomorrow on I shall be sad,
From tomorrow on
Not today. Today I shall be glad.
And everyday, no matter how bitter
it may be,
I shall say;
From tomorrow on I shall be sad. Not today.

Lucinda Lehmer

And when we say goodbye
And when both of us take our path—
We shall be separate.
Just awhile—
For roads never go on alone
They intertwine and intersect.
And thus I know
And thus I realize
We shall meet again.

Beth Anne Moody

It's the truth even though it never happened.

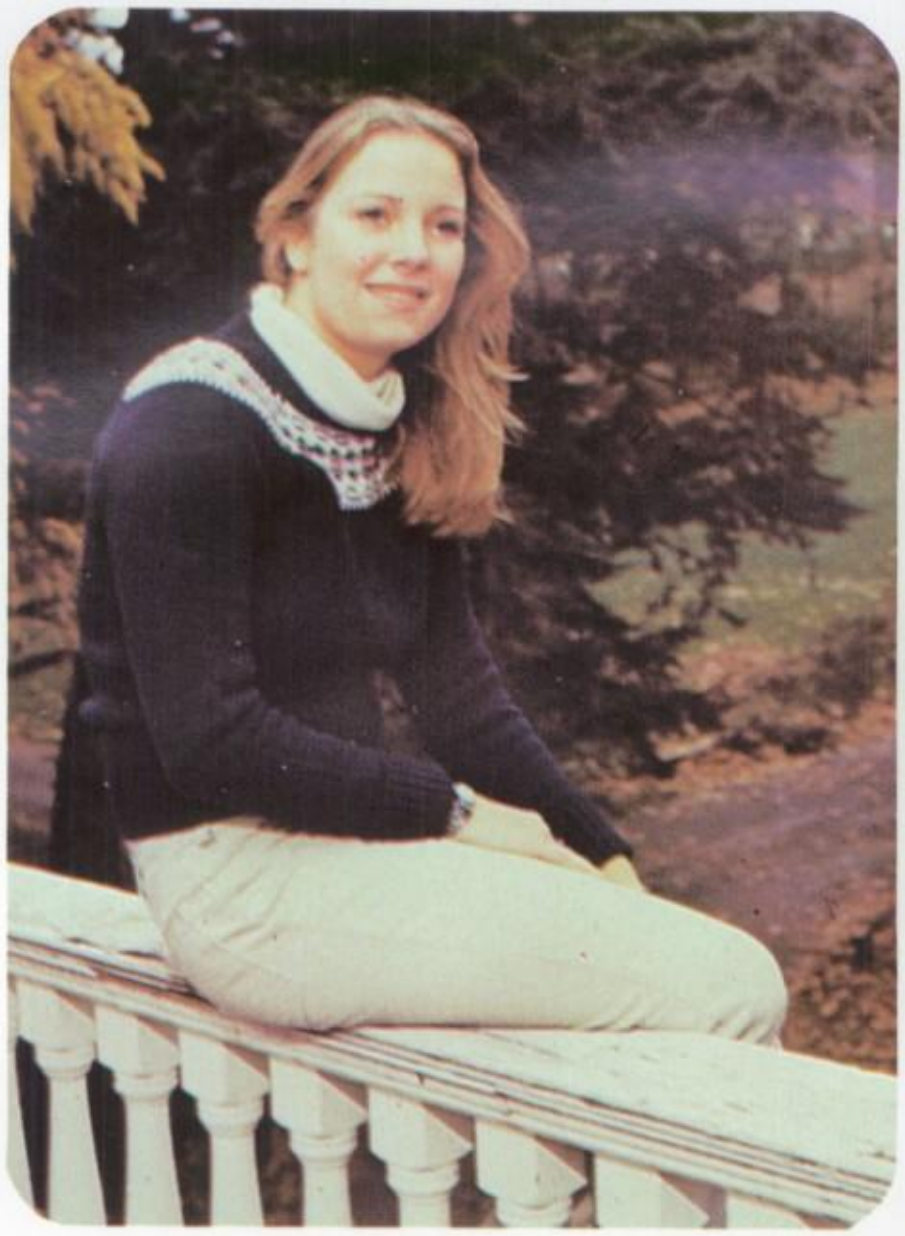
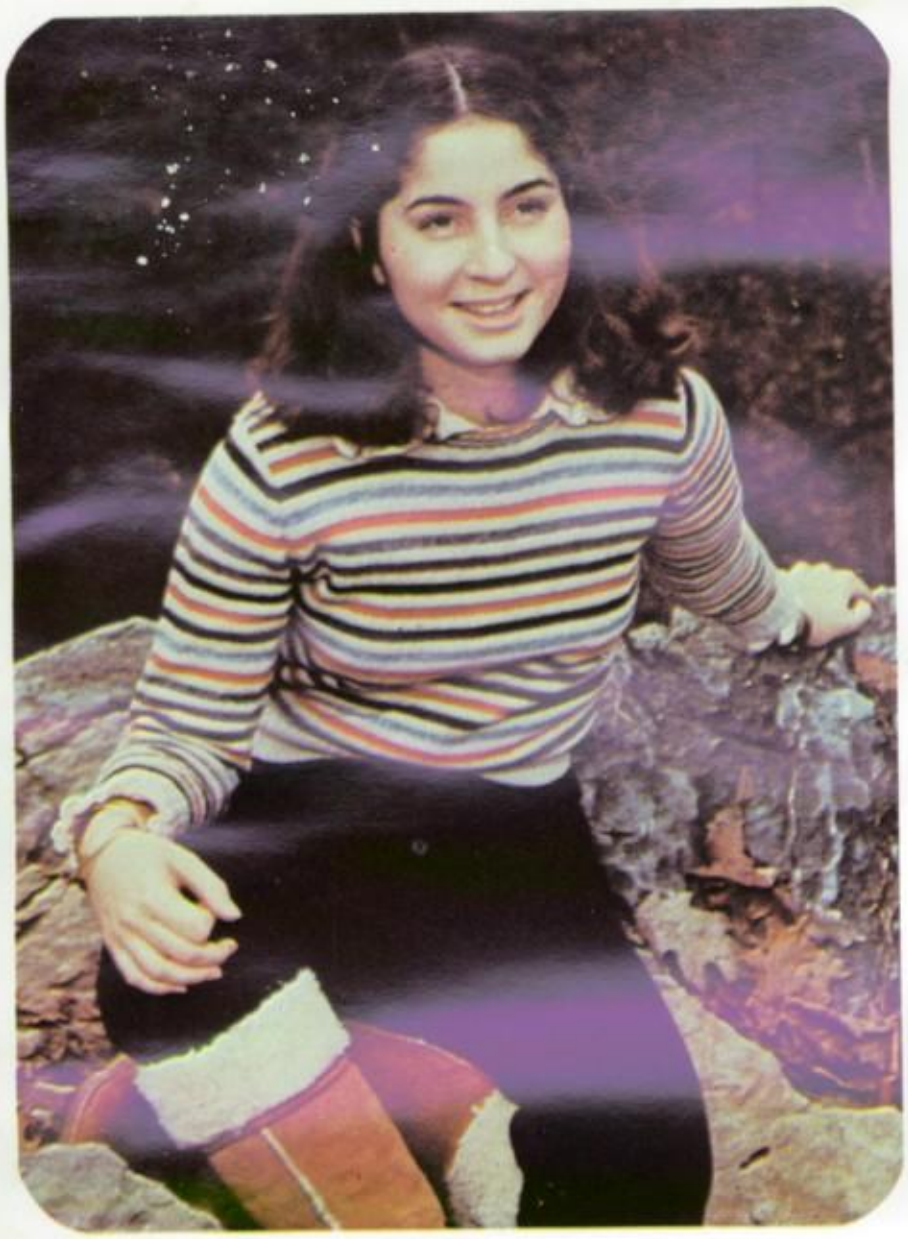
Janie Urruela

You have touched me,
I have grown.

Dorrie Boggs





God grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can,
and wisdom to know the difference.

Laily Amir-Ebrahimi

A friend is one who knows you as you are, understands where you have been,
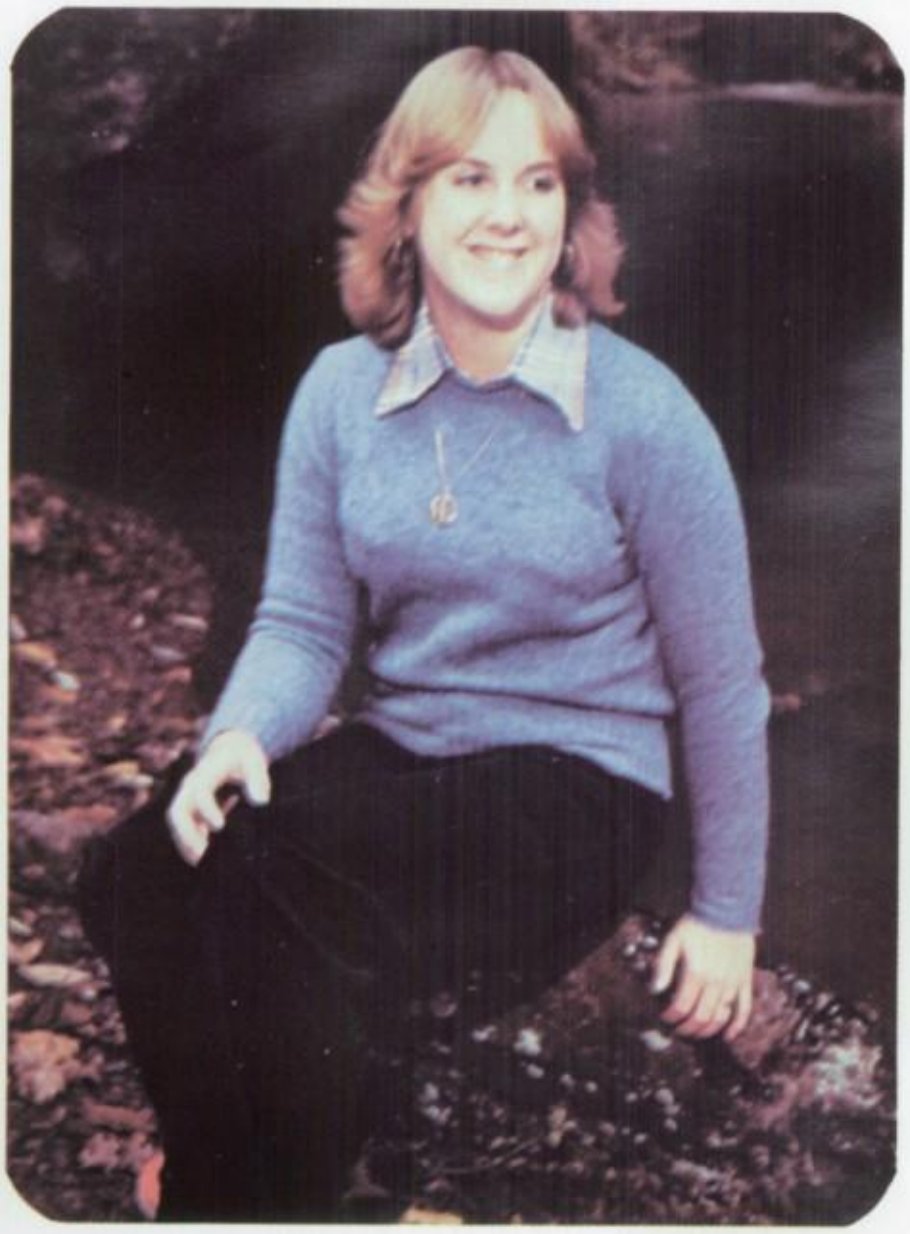
accepts who you've become and still,
gently invites you to grow.

Maya Johnson

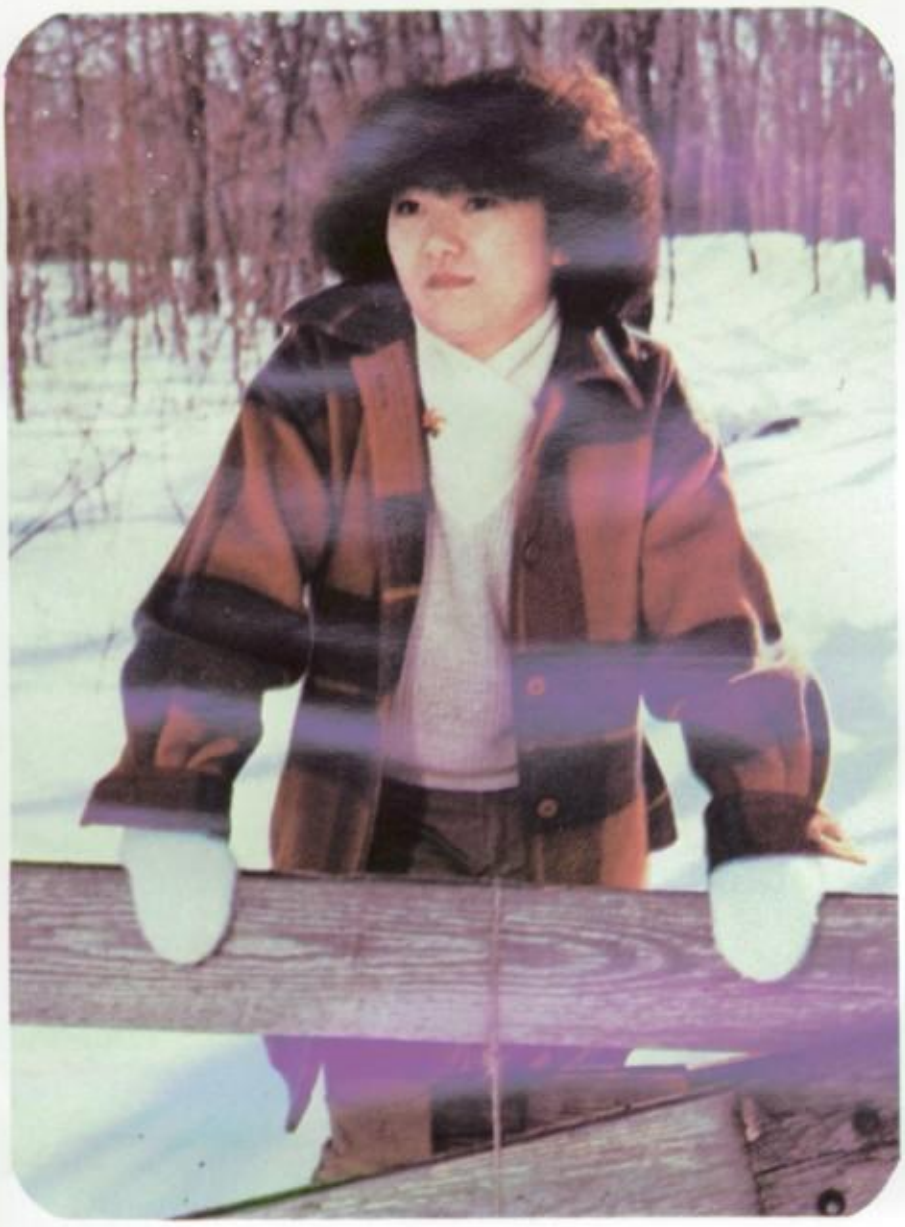


If you love something
Set it free
If it comes back,
it's yours.
If not . . .
it never was.

Missy Kennedy

Champion the right to be yourself;
dare to be different and to set your own pattern;
live your own life and follow your own star.

Johnie Diamond



There are two ways of spreading the light:
to be the candle or the mirror that reflects
it.

Setsuko Nakamura

Remember . . . The future is shaped by the past . . .
So be very careful about what you do in the past . . .

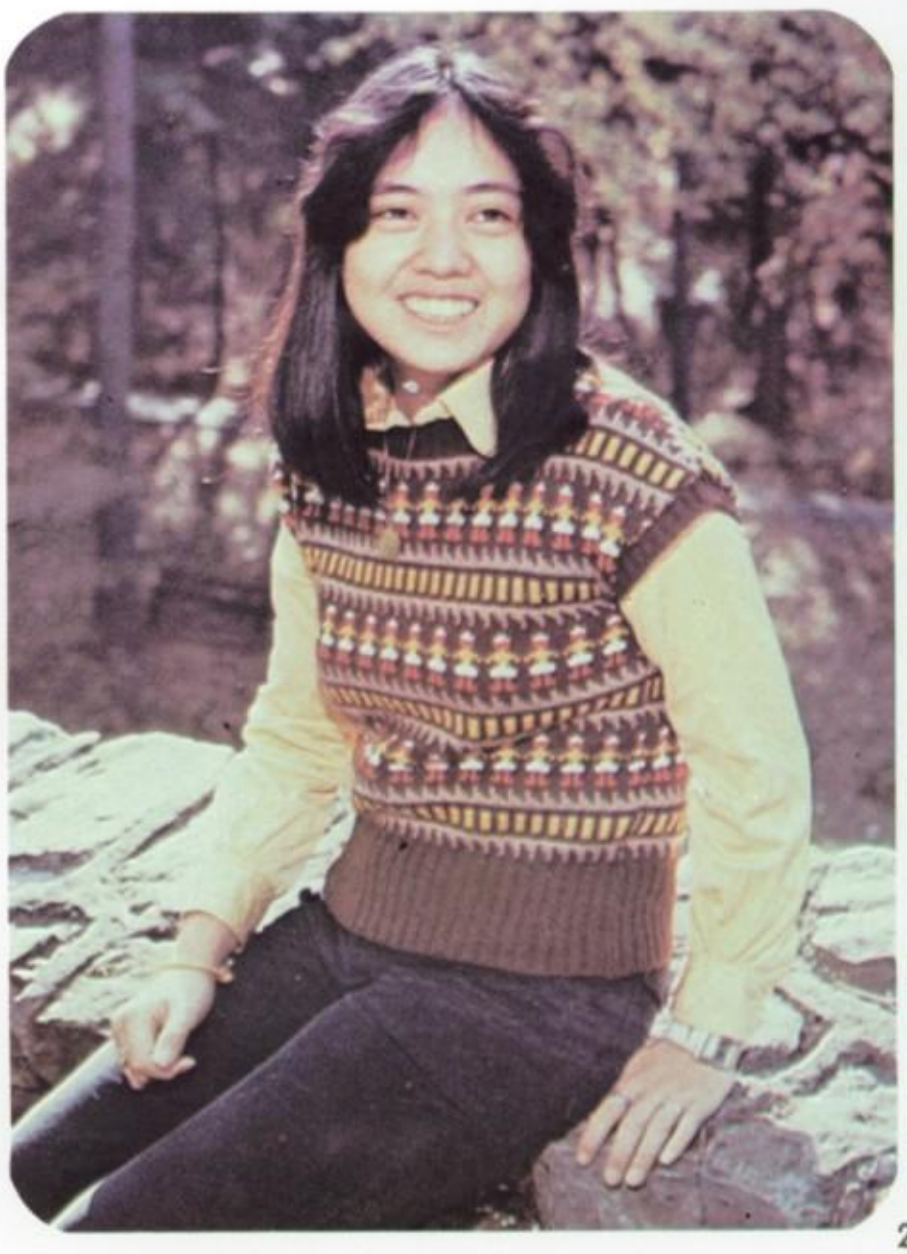
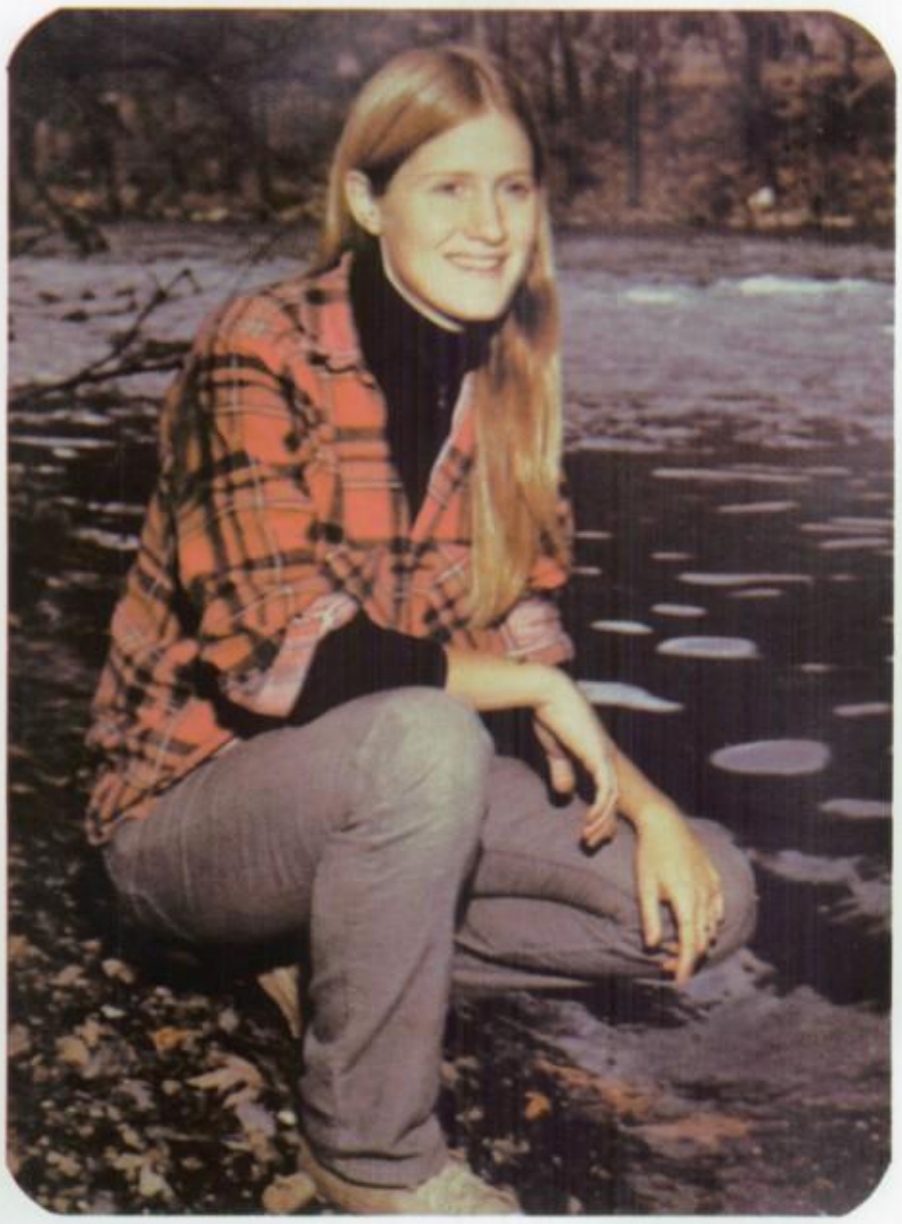
Sachiyo Furuya





All for one
And one for all!

Phoebe Cook

It's been real
It's been fun but . . .

Trine Ford

A smile is a whisper of a laugh
. . . so it goes.

Sarah Keith

The Secret of Contentment is knowing how to enjoy what you have.

Ann Toomey

One of these dreams.
One of these lost and lonely dreams,
We gonna find one,
one that really screams.

Rumiko Kakishima

The important thing is this:
To be able at any moment to sacrifice what we are for what we could become.

Hilda Bueno

Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Kimberly Paine

Every thought is a dream, rushing by in a stream . . .

Linda Kagan

The best friends are those who know how to keep the same silences.

Mary Sunderland

Just about any dream
Grows stronger
If you hold on a little longer.

Carolyn Prahl

The grand essentials to happiness in this life are something to do, something to love, and something to hope for.

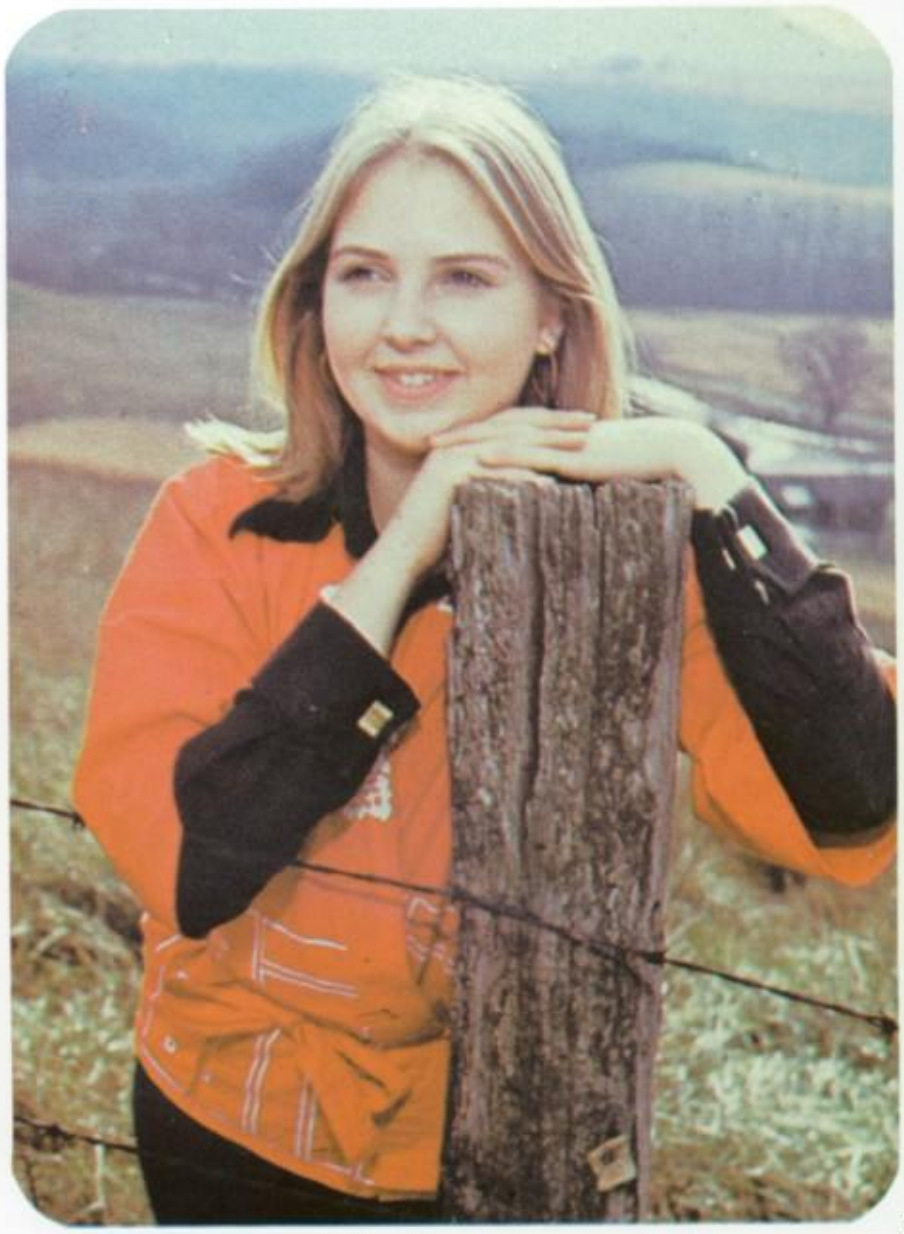
Jennifer Harbert

We cannot direct the wind,
but we can adjust our sails.

Kathrine Ruud



When the sun sets,
A star rises.

Josee Primeau

A single real friend is a treasure worth more than gold.

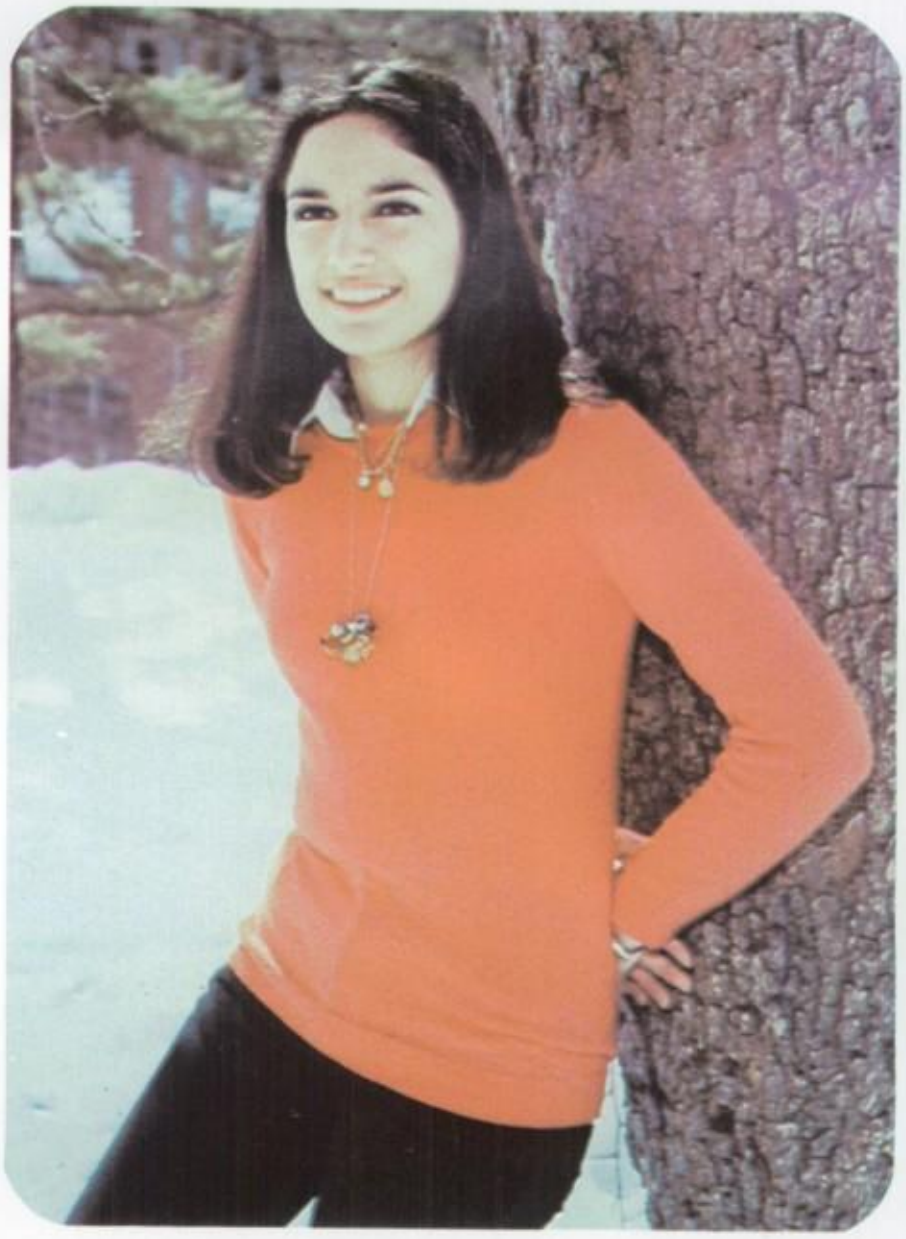
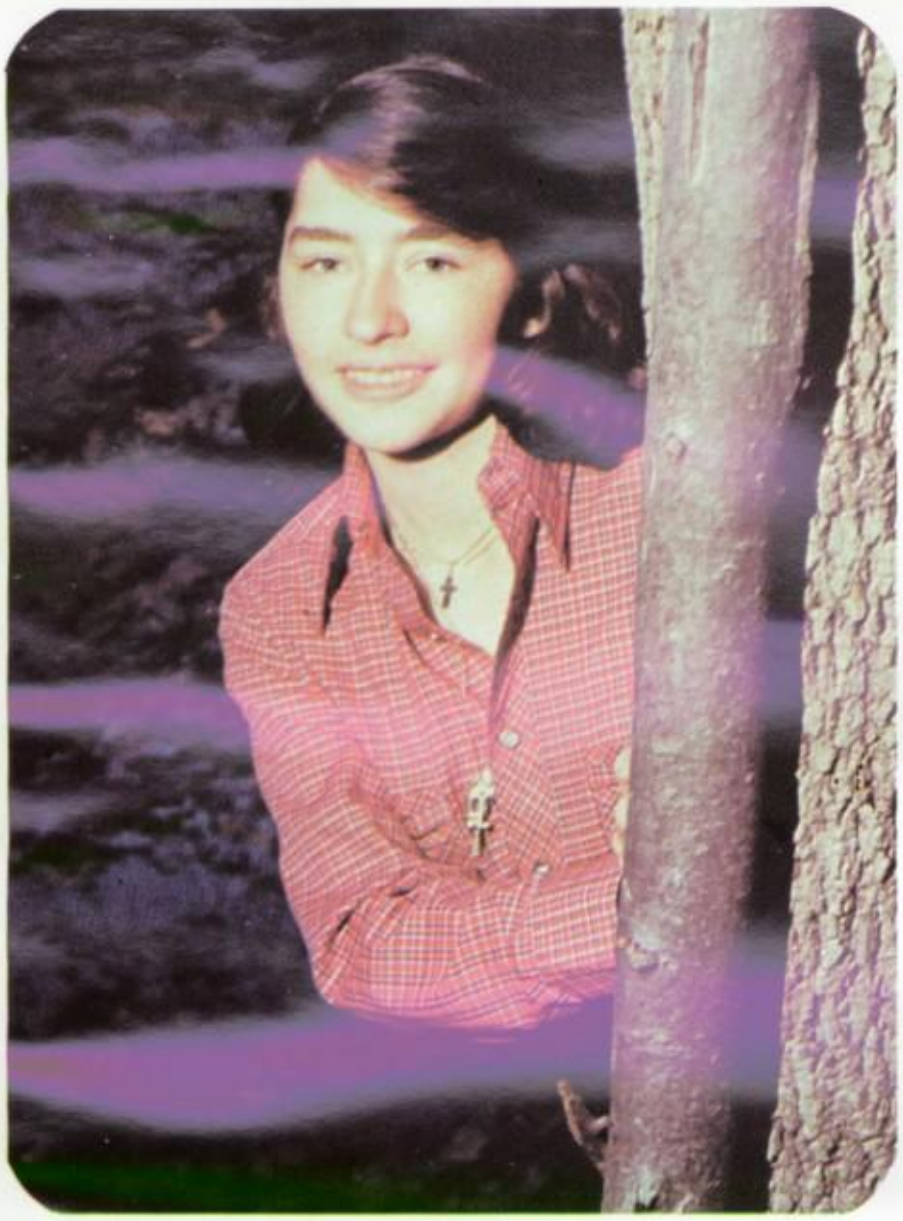
Tina Ordoukhanian





There is only one thing finer than a friend you trust, that's a friend who trusts you.

Carine Petrossian

People are lonely because they build walls instead of bridges.

We thank Thee for this place in which we dwell;
for the love that unites us;
for the place accorded us this day;
for the hope with which we expect the morrow;
for the health, the work, the food,
and the bright skies that make our lives delightful;
for our friends in all parts of the earth,
and for our friendly helpers in this foreign isle.
Give us courage and gaiety and a quiet mind.
Spare to us our friends, soften to us our enemies.
Bless us, if it may be, in all our innocent endeavors.
If it may not, give us the strength to encounter that which is to come, that we be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in worth,
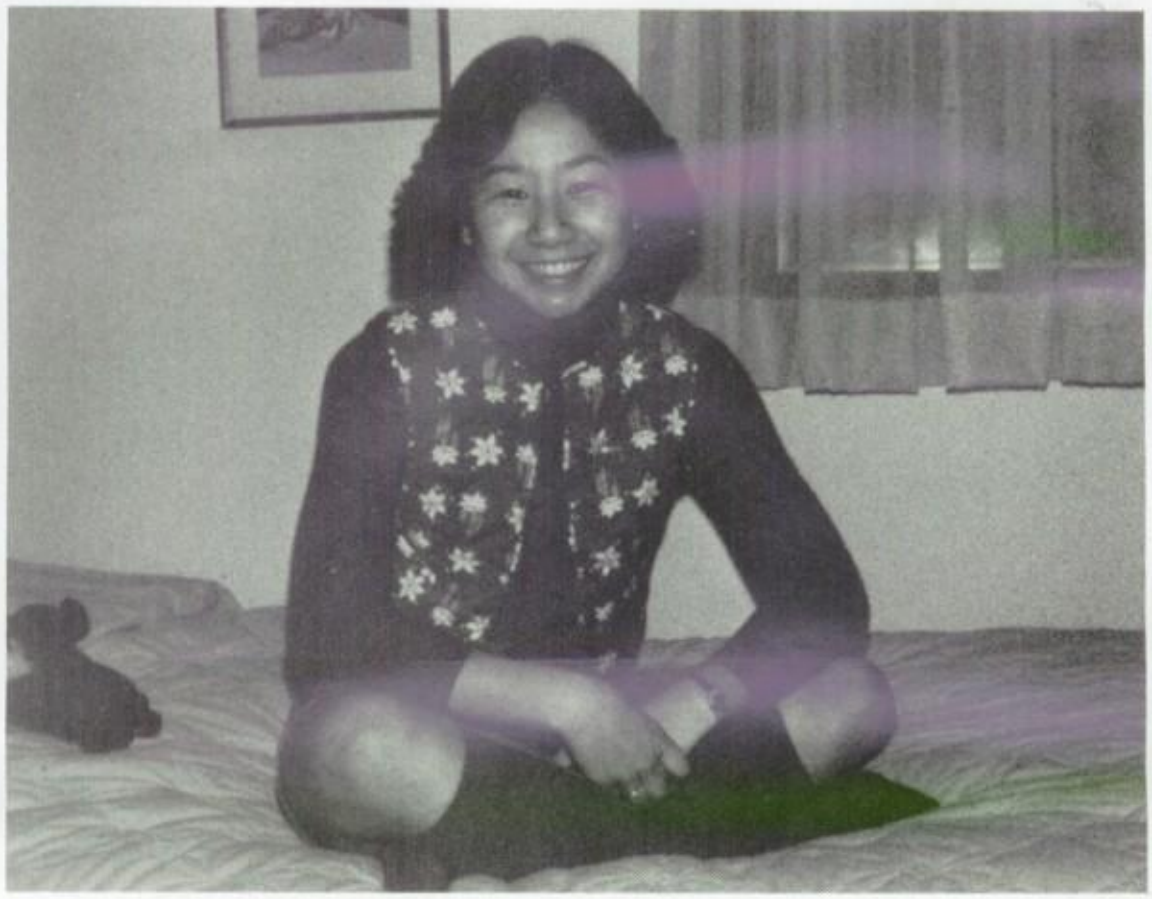
and in all changes of fortune,
and down to gates of death,
loyal and loving one to another.



Congratulations from Ai and Hitomi !!!

It is not knowing how much we have,
but how much we enjoy that makes happiness.

"The time to begin anything is now, so do it today. Perhaps you will say you are not ready, that you must give some additional thought to your proposed undertaking. Well, do it today. Begin now. The things you put off are never done. Someone has wisely observed that we cannot change yesterday, nor begin on tomorrow until it is here. So all that is left for you and for me is to make every today the best that can be. When you can think of yesterday without regret and tomorrow without fear, you will be on the highway to success, because you will be using your todays in the best you know how, and your tomorrows will be rich with promise, Begin Now!"

Lori—Memories occur in a minute, but last a lifetime. Will you ever forget Blue Knob, dances, French Class, your blind date? I hope not. Cherish them as treasured memories—You're something special. Love Ya, Ann.

Evita—The rodeo, the beaches, the memories that live on. So, until this summer (take a little trip, take a little trip) I love you and I'll miss you. Becky K.

Jenn—Where are your mattresses? Barb.

Heather "T"-boms—To my best friend and roommate ever. Hang low. Don't be a pinhead or a lynch. Don't forget Junior and don't ever forget our messy room. I'll miss you. Keep in touch. Don't play apple pie too much. I wuv you, Molly. P.S.: Here you come again to Scarborough Fair.

Jeannine—Thanks for being such a good friend. I'm going to miss you next year. Take care and don't ever change. Love ya always, Julie.

Robin—I and I don't swalla! Love ya always.

Molly—You're a good friend, keep on playing tennis.

Heather—We got something in common! Love VBI.

Diana—Keep cool bru!

Jill—One day I'll buy you a year's worth of bubble gum! You're a good roomie. See ya next year.

Josée—I'm happy I'm yours. Love, Jill.

Jeanninne G.—Renaissance and Reformation, riding, ect. . . . I'll miss you . . . Till next year. Love, Neobby.

Dorie—Hope you'll never forget all the crazy times we had, jogging, breakfast at 4 a.m., diets. I would never have missed them or doing them with you—it was great, Love ya, Ann.

Peggy—Away dances, riding, aggravation of French Class, munching out—will you ever forget the crazy times at Grier? Love ya, Ann.

Maya—The moment maybe temporary but the memory forever. I hope you don't ever forget the good memories from Grier. Glad we were friends! Love ya, Ann.

Laily—Laugh and love it. Smile and take it. But don't ever grin and bear it. Will you ever forget love is . . . thicker than water—I played it enough! Luck always, Love ya, Ann.

Betsy—When people have to say goodbye, that's why memories are there, to help you keep on remembering. Love, Evelyn.

Carrine—A friend like you means everything to me. Love, Josée.

Debbie—Keep on smiling and the world will smile back. Love, Josée.

Trine—Pistachio nuts and my M&M factory. Love, Josée.

Hitomi & Dorothy W.—Memories are meant to be cherished. I hope the memories that you have received from your friends here at Grier will be put in your hearts and that they will be precious enough to be put under lock and key. Love, Evelyn.

Julia A.—A friend is someone who knows all about you, but I love you anyway. Love ya, Evelyn.

Julie—My dear old chap? Love, Josée.

Dory—A good friend never lets you down. Love, Josée.

Janie—The disco queen in your room. Love, Josée.

Laily—Hoping, reaching, discouraging. This is life. Love, Josée.

Liz—A true friend is a very nice memory in your possession. Love, Josée.

Debby—Sleeping in my room or maybe looking at magazines would be a good dream. Love, Josée.

Ava—The greatest friend is THE greatest possession. Love, Josée.

Tina—On regardera ce qui noos est arriver en Iran. Love, Josée.

Beth—The kindest frog somebody could ever know. Love, Josée.

Holly & Tatoo Heather—Some people have it and others don't. So watch yourselves. With love to two terrific dancers. Preserve your memories, that's all that's left. Evelyn.

Jenn—Greeb . . . Eloise . . . clink, clank pick up the phone . . . Oh, no! It's Earl! . . . Matt . . . Neanderthal man . . . Where are my mattresses? All right you guys! . . . How would you like to spend the summer in the attic? . . . Eep! Love, Andi and Anita.

Sid—Real friends are those who when you make a fool of yourself don't feel it's a permanent job . . . Thank God for that, I live with my foot in my mouth! Like with Carson Long! Thanks for everything, Love Ya, Ann.

Beth—Thanks for your advice and friendship, your something special— will you ever forget our destroying water battles? Hope so. Love ya, Ann.

Hilda—Gracias por todo, principalmente to amistidad tan generosa. Nunca Podre olvidar nuestras locuras, cuidate siempte. Love ya, Ann.

Tina—Ne marche pas devant moi-je ne to svivrais puet—être pas. Ne marche pas derrière moi-je ne te guideraispeut—être pas. Marche à côté de moi-et sois seulement mon ami. Love ya, Ann.

Jenny—Rapid & Hopes, Oh, that's ignorant. I wish I was legal! Horse shows. I've got the blues. Well, what can I say (watch out Monahan) thanks for the memories! Love Always, Maria.

Janet—Hey, what are you doing? Algebra, men, dances, it's good for your health! Good times. Love ignorant.

Jeaninne—I guess he's cute too! Pride & H. es forever. Love, Maria.

Miriam—Chica, find me another Virgilio. Love ya, Maria.

Trine I.—You're a great person! Please keep in touch! Love, Robin Z.

Phoebe—Have a wonderful summer! Don't get to skinny! Love, Robin Z.

Spyder—Hey there cutie!! Don't get into too much trouble with you know who!! See ya next year! Love, Robin Z.

Anne M.—Don't walk in front of me because I might run you down. Just walk beside me and be my friend. Love, Evelyn.

Mary—We lived through pretty bad times and a lot of good times. I hope this spring is filled with sunshine. Don't let your preppieness catch up with you. Love ya, Becky K.

Nancy Klink—Memories have a strong influence on your person, don't let the bad ones pull you down. Love, Evelyn.

Dorothy L.—A WOMAN is nothing without the freedom to do whatever she thinks is right. With love WOMAN. Love, Evelyn.

Heather—"Whatever"—Luv you 4-ever—Robin.

Diana—You skanker! "Every"think is beautiful—wuv, Robin.

Jill—Bubble gum baby! See you in Bda. Luv, Robin.

Class of '79—Remember we are having our graduation party in Bermuda! Love, Robin and Diana.

Dorothy—"Disco Baby". Luv, Robin.

Carol M.—Friendships are made for keeping, memories are also. Both of them are also made to be kept under lock and key. Love, Evelyn.

Phoebe—I heard somewhere that drinking lamp oil wasn't too good for the brain, maybe you should take it a little easy from now on. I'll remember you always. How could I forget. I love ya and will miss ya. Becky K.

Hank—To someone who is a friend, from a friend. Love always, Evelyn.

Margot—Keep your inks on paper and not on people like Tatoo Heather. I'll miss you. Love, Evelyn.

Andi—Mole . . . arf . . . making trouble at dances . . . fido, fido . . . ribbit . . . I'll parachute down to see you this summer . . . See you, Anita.

Trine—If you wake up one night with a tube in your mouth with food being funneled into you, you'll know who loves you. Love Ya, Becky.

Ava—Ziggy lives on! So does my brother. I'll miss you much! Love, Margot.

Lori—Ba-Ba. S. A. Native New Yorker. Glenn. Gonna miss you. Love ya, Kathy.

Mary & Katherine—We had good times. Mary, I still owe you a coke. How's Oscar? Come see me again. Love you both, Dorothy.

Pat—Hey big sis, thanks for all your help. Love ya, Lisa.

Nancy P.—Lots of talks, carp, Rush, I'm going to miss you. Come see me next year. Love, Missy.

Sigrid S.—The joy of your heart was given to hare. Pat Douglas.

(sbt) Becky Tuten—I'll miss ya lots, don't get in too much trouble! Good luck T. B. Heather.

Carrie—See you next year. Remember the pictures . . . Dr. Seuss . . . 2H2C5OH . . . your dining room and phone . . . Klinck's jokes . . . Love ya, Cheryl.

Sherri Lange—You're a great friend. Thanx for all the support you gave me this year. Let's keep in touch always. Love, Robin Z.

Ann—Most cherished pal and roommate. We've finally made it. It's been a fantastic two years and I thank you for every minute of it. I'll never forget your friendship. I love you, Julie.

Jeanne—Hockey, softball, algebra, English, April Fool's, gatehouse, CHARGE, much, much more . . . never CAST it away. Hope you get ahead in the future. Take it easy. See yar at camp and next year. Luv, Sue.

Forggy—Happiness is points and chobee. Luv, Rob 4-ever.

Boom—hey naww . . . Aim it out the window. Our wonderful weekend . . . injuries. The big Z dilemna . . . it's cool—Love always, Cross.

Sally—Lie down. S. W.

Albert—Clitch, clitch, Nym.

Heather Redding—Mocho Gronde, I had a great time with you. I hope I can see you this summer. A. H. Francesca.

Mary S.—Have fun with Bernnie and good luck. Love, Becky T.

Don't muddy up the googol*

*Googol: The largest number of things that has a name. Well, it defines as the number one followed by a hundred zeros.

There are googols of little creatures squiggling and burrowing, flitting and squishing under the mud, through the swamps and over the sandy marshes. Sea squirts, copepods, lugworm larvae and the babies of little fish. Each with a kind of a brain, each with the breath of life. But their life is ebbing. And as they start to go—you do, too.

You are standing on the threshold of time in as sacred a place as any in the world. It's where the life of the water and the life of the land converge in biological blur. These are the wetlands—the swamps and the mudflats that sometimes smell like rotten eggs. These are the marshes, clogged with weeds, swarming with bugs, teeming with beautiful life. This is where the moon moves the water in shallow ebbs and floods; where the sun pierces down to the ooze and the nutrients flow in a strange and marvelous way. Nowhere else except here in these sopping grounds is there so much life in so much concentration. But the life is dwindling. And as these lands start to go—you do, too.

These squishy, mushy lands are where most of our fish are born, the fish that feed the fish that feed the fish that fill the sea. These narrow strips of estuarine land are where the birds come to rest and nest and feed; and they are tied inexorably to the life support for the raccoons and the bears and the deer a hundred miles away. And to you.

In California, most of the wetlands are already gone. In Florida, they're going fast. Once there were 127 million acres of interior and coastal wetlands. Now forty per cent are gone, the precious specks of life in these treasured lands exchanged for yacht clubs and marinas and industrial growth. As we dredge the bays and fill the marshes and cover the mud with asphalt; as we spray our poisons and scatter our waste and spew oil upon the waters—we destroy forever the great forces of life that began millennia ago.

But now we have gone too far. Because this planet belongs not only to us but to them as well. To the umpteen zillion other things that fly in the sky and roam on the land and swim in the sea and burrow beneath our feet.

Now, especially now, if we will only stop to think—perhaps we will think to stop.

Beth Anne—

At this proud and memorable moment in your life,
may it be filled with love,
joy, and happiness.
Pause for a moment and reflect on your past accomplishments, friendships acquired and future goals to be reached.
The world can be your oyster
but you are our pearl.

Best of everything for the future.

Mom and Dad
